All Decked Out at Dada.net!

Dada is new and improved, and we continue to make changes with you in mind. So now it's your turn to talk! Let us know what you think about our new look, what features you'd like to see, etc.

Speed Thrills: You may have noticed that Dada is faster than ever! And we are making improvements each day. We'll spare you the tech talk, but one such improvement is we now delete personal messages after 30 days. So no longer will your old messages slow down your style!

And Now, Our Feature Presentation: Dada's coolest new feature? "My TV," where you can loop all of your videos on your profile page in a large display window! Go to "Add/Remove Box" on your Profile page. From there, you can also select where the videos are displayed by editing your layout.

Mind Your Messages: Since summertime is vacation time, we know there'll be days you can't keep up with messages from your Dada buddies. So we've added an auto-responder to let your friends know you're not ignoring them, you're just away and will reply when you get back! To enable the auto-responder, click on the alert above your e-mail inbox or your personal messages inbox, and then you'll be able to customize the message text.

Money Talks: So you've made money with the Dada friend\$ program and you want to tell the world ... well, tell us and we'll tell the world! E-mail your story so it can be featured on the Dada friend\$ blog. The more exposure your pages get, the more money you make! And if you have questions about the friend$ program, watch our tutorial video.

Join Friend$ Today! It's FREE!

All This and a Bag of Chips: Are you taking advantage of all that Dada Mobi has to offer? You can get the coolest ringers for your cell for less than a bag of chips each! And Mobi's also new and improved, with a new "Browse by Letter" search option, so you can find the artist you're looking for more easily. That's R for Rihanna ...
